BIO

Visionary Leader in Addiction Recovery and Mental Health

Dr. Shelissa Thomas has over 24 years of experience transforming lives through addiction recovery and mental health services. As the CEO and Co-Founder of Restore, she has turned personal tragedy into purpose, creating hope and healing for individuals and families. Her faith and passion led to the opening of Alaska's first African American woman-owned crisis stabilization center, setting new standards in care. Her unwavering faith lets her see even complex issues through the belief that "With God, all things are possible." Dr. Thomas is a Mental Health and Addiction Recovery Specialist, Life Coach, Pastor, Inspirational Speaker, and Int'l Best-Selling Author of "Going Beyond Your Now". She is the creator of the M.M.T. (Mindful Momentum Technique), which she uses along with other modalities to help clients re-program the subconscious mind to heal from unrecognized or undiagnosed traumas.

MISSION

Her commitment is to create a safe space to explore crisis, trauma, and relationship issues for individuals and families in need through mental wellness coaching. Dr. Thomas is committed to opening their world in ways that will make sense after every session. She supports individuals and families in their journey towards a new path in a sustainable, healed, balanced, and authentic life.
